

GOVERNMENT STRATEGY AND PLANNING DAY

Take advantage of the financial year end by investing in a team strategy and planning day.

Give your team clarity for the year ahead, improve engagement, build culture and morale, and develop your workplan and priorities.

WHAT'S COVERED IN THE STRATEGY AND PLANNING SESSION?

WHAT WE DELIVER

We'll deliver you clarity on your plan for the year ahead in a fun and engaging way through:

- ✓ Pre-workshop planning session
- ✓ Interview with the team leader
- ✓ Half or full day planning workshop
- ✓ Summary report

OPTIONAL ADD ONS:

- ✓ Wider stakeholder consultation in advance of the planning day
- ✓ Team building activities
- ✓ In-depth strategy and planning document
- ✓ Follow up coaching and leadership briefings

OUR TEAM

We bring over 15 years strategy and planning experience to your organisation

HEIDI SUNDIN

Director, The Agenda Agency

Heidi's strategy and planning experience spans corporate, academia, the public sector and the not-for-profit sector. Government agencies Heidi has worked with include: Australian Federal Policy, Department of Employment, and the Workplace Gender Equality Agency.

SAMANTHA SUTHERLAND

Director, SamanthaSutherland.com.au

Samantha is a highly engaged and experienced facilitator with experience across strategy, planning and risk. Samantha's government clients include the Clean Energy Regulator, Indigenous Land and Sea Corporation and iCare NSW.

"Samantha was able to tailor an event to suit the personalities within our team. The team was engaged throughout and we left with tangible outcomes for the following 12 months. I found Samantha's workshops so valuable that I engaged her over a number of years, and highly recommend Samantha for a planning day."

MELANIE GIBBONS
Ex - Communications Manager,
Clean Energy Regulator

"Heidi is a strategic thinker, expert facilitator and a delightful person to work with. She recently assisted the team with our planning session. In a short period of time she was able to draw the best ideas out of the team and develop a successful strategy."
